The Passenger Fight Between the Eastern and Western Lines.

Commissioner Pierson of the Eastern passenger pool, and the General Passenger Agents of the Western roads met at the Grand Pacific Hotel at 11 o'clock yesterday morning for the purpose of consulting as to the means necessary to restore harmony between the Eastern and Western lines and stop the fight on passenger business from Eastern to Western points. Besides Commissioner Pierson there were present W. R. Kenyon and W. A. Wood, Northern Pacific; E. D. Cole, W. G. Throop and John Sebastian, Rock Island; James Charlton, Atlantic, C. S. Lomax, Burlington; G. T. H. Carpenter and George Redfield, Atchison; G. H. Paul, C. C. Cornell and Frank Thomson, Missouri Pacific and Texas.

Mr. Pierson opened the proceedings by giving a history of the Eastern association, showing how it was formed, what it was doing, and what it had done in the past. He said that the association was formed for the purpose of preventing cutting in passenger fares in the Eastern territory, and that it had been very successful in its work. He said that the association was not formed for the purpose of preventing cutting in the West, but that it was formed for the purpose of preventing cutting in the East, and that it was not his business to come to the West and tell the Western roads what they should do in the matter. He said that he was there at the request of the Eastern roads, and that he was there to see what could be done to restore harmony between the Eastern and Western lines and stop the fight on passenger business from Eastern to Western points. Besides Commissioner Pierson there were present W. R. Kenyon and W. A. Wood, Northern Pacific; E. D. Cole, W. G. Throop and John Sebastian, Rock Island; James Charlton, Atlantic; C. S. Lomax, Burlington; G. T. H. Carpenter and George Redfield, Atchison; G. H. Paul, C. C. Cornell and Frank Thomson, Missouri Pacific and Texas.

A PRESCRIPTION FOR DYSPEPSIA.

Certain, harmless, natural, and most agreeable of all, no drugs necessary. By complying with the following suggestions of the symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress of stomach, nervousness, insomnia, languidness, sick headache, heartburn, etc., etc., will disappear, the sufferer will again be cheerful, able to fulfill his duties and to enjoy life. Thousands have been profited greatly, and many thousands more can be made happy also. Now for the prescription:

Breakfast—A slice or two of toast or cracked wheat, a cup of coffee or tea (if desired), and a glass of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Dinner—A moderate piece of lean beef or mutton, a mealy potato or two, a little bread, and a glass of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Supper—Be cold food whatever, simply one or two glasses of Ayer's Hair Vigor. A glass of Hair Vigor may also be taken on retiring. What people sleep better on it.

Though this regime of diet may seem scant to such as are in the habit of satisfying their appetite (not distinguishing between appetite and hunger), yet scientific investigation and experience have proved that it is sufficient for all but hard laborers. With some diet the dyspeptic grows fretful, cranky, hearty, when on a diet that he enjoys good, weak, and sickly. One week's trial will tell the story and prove the truth of above suggestions. If you do not know what Ayer's Hair Vigor is you can have a treatise thereon mailed to you, gratis, by addressing

HARPER'S BAZAR.

A JOURNAL OF

Fashion, Pleasure, and Instruction.

"No Family Should Be Without It."

HARPER'S BAZAR is the leading family paper of America. It saves its readers both time and money. It carries the latest fashions every week from Maine to California, and the dwellers on the remotest prairies are as well informed by it, in respect to taste and style in dress, as the citizens of the metropolis. By the aid of its Pattern-Sheet Supplements, between twenty and thirty of which are issued gratuitously every year, each containing a dozen or more patterns of ladies' and children's garments, ladies can save many times the cost of subscription by becoming their own dressmakers or intelligently superintending those whom they employ. Its columns are filled with all kinds of economical suggestions concerning household adornment and art needlework, the management of servants, cookery for the well and the sick, the best methods of regulating family expenses, the care of the house, gardening, etc. Practical instructions are given for remodeling garments, for furnishing houses tastefully and cheaply, and in all the departments of domestic economy. Special attention is also paid to social etiquette and polite usages—topics always of interest to ladies.

A host of brilliant attractions will be found in the new volume; among these will be a Serial Story of powerful dramatic interest, by the distinguished novelist CHARLES READE, which, as the author himself remarks, "is the first serial story of any length I have written this five years, and may be my last."

In literary and artistic merit HARPER'S BAZAR is unapproached by any journal of its class. Its stories, sketches, poems, and other articles, are by the best writers in Europe and America. Its short stories have won marked distinction; its editorials are vigorous and sensible; and its miscellany is both useful and readable. Its brilliant art pictures would fill a large portfolio every year, and are models of superb engraving, while its humorous illustrations are second to none in America. Fresh, racy, bright, and sparkling, it is always entertaining as well as always useful, and has established its reputation as the leading Family Journal, not only of America, but also of the world.
